

Government Smart Card & Federal Identity Credentialing Manuals

Ralph Billeri

BearingPoint

703.519.2314

ralph.billeri@bearingpoint.com

Smart Card Project Manager's Meeting

October 2004

Smart Card Handbook –

- Document the latest issues, practices, and lesson's-learned concerning the application of smart cards and related technologies.
- Completed in March 2004
- Over 400 CD copies were made and distributed
- Over 100,000 downloads of the handbook from SCA web site
- Available on-line at www.CIO.gov/ficc or www.smartcardalliance.org

Federal Identity Credentialing –

- Document the latest issues, practices and lesson's-learned concerning the implementation of an interoperable federal identity credential.
 - Based upon HSPD-12
 - Anticipated NIST Identity Credentialing Standard – Feb 05
 - And the guidance from the Federal Identity Credentialing Working Groups
- Effort is currently underway – anticipated completion in Feb '05
- More information at www.CIO.gov/ficc

Planned for the FICC Reference Guide

- 1. Introduction, Charter, Vision and Goals
- 2. Approach to Federal Identity Credentialing
 - a) Authentication Policy Framework
 - b) Guide to FICC Working Groups
 - c) Policy Management
- 3. Policy & Guidance
- 4. Migration Planning
- 5. Acquisition Planning
- 6. Reference Implementation
- 7. Conformance Testing
- 8. Lesson's Learned
- 9. Index